Indian Child Caravan
TIMELINE

1980
April 22 (Tuesday)	Spallumcheen Indian Band passes "A By-law for the Care of our Indian Children"
July 1980	Minister of Indian Affairs approved Spallumcheen By-Law on Indian Child Care
October 9 (Thursday)	People from the North (Fort St. John) and Burns Lake arrive in Prince George 200 people gather for rally at Indian Friendship Centre in Prince George People from the South arrive at Neskainlith Feast and rally were held at Neskainlith Indian Government Hall
October 10 (Friday)	Caravan travels through Williams Lake and Lillooet 100 people leave Bella Coola to join up with Caravan
October 11 (Saturday)	Caravan continues on to Mount Currie and Nanaimo
October 12 (Sunday)	Entire Indian Child Caravan merges in Vancouver on Indian Independence Day
October 13 (Monday)	600 Native Indians assembled at Oppenheim Park After speeches, the Indians gathered in a motor vehicle caravan and, under police escort, moved slowly up Main Street to Hillcrest park At the park they left their vehicles and continued their journey on foot west along King Edward Boulevard marching past the affluent mansions of the Shaunghnessy district Final destination of the Caravan was the home of the Honourable Grace McCarthy, B.C.'s Minister of Human Resources
October 14 (Tuesday)	Workshops on how to implement Indian control of child welfare
October 16 (Thursday)	Chief Wayne Christian and UBCIC representatives meet with Grace McCarthy
October 14-17	UBCIC 12th Annual General Assembly: Discussion on success of the Indian Child Caravan UBCIC passes resolution in support of the aims of the Indian Child Caravan
November 28 (Friday)	Chief Wayne Christian and Minister of Human Resources, Grace McCarthy, sign an undated, hand-written agreement offering full responsibility and control over their children from the Ministry on the assumption that the Spallumcheen Band will develop necessary resources in negotiation with the federal government